Title 299 - NEBRASKA REAL ESTATE COMMISSION

Chapter 1 - LICENSES; APPLICATIONS; TERMS, DEFINED; EXAMINATIONS; SURRENDER, SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION; RENEWAL; CANCELLATION; REINSTATEMENT; TRANSFER OF LICENSE.

001 All applications for real estate broker's or salesperson's original licenses must be filed in the Office of the Real Estate Commission and the applicant approved in accordance with the Nebraska Real Estate License Act prior to the date of examination. All applications to re-take an examination must be filed in the Office of the Real Estate Commission and the applicant re-approved in accordance with the Nebraska Real Estate License Act prior to the date of re-examination.

002 An applicant shall forfeit the examination fee when said applicant fails to appear to take the examination for which said applicant has been scheduled, unless said applicant has given the required cancellation notice as contracted by the Real Estate Commission with the examination provider.

003 Each original application for a broker's or salesperson's original license must include the Social Security Number of the applicant and be accompanied by a passport-type picture of the applicant taken within the past year.

004 Persons desiring to secure a broker's license must first file with the Commission such application for a broker's license and pass a written examination. Written Examination includes examinations completed by paper and pencil and computerized or electronic examination means, or other methods of examination as contracted for by the Real Estate Commission.

004.01 The words "have first served actively for two years," as provided in Subsection (3) of Section 81-885.13 of the Nebraska Real Estate License Act, shall mean that the applicant must have devoted his or her full-time experience to activities requiring the holding of a salesperson's license or, if less than full time, for a period of time equal to two years of full-time experience.

004.02 Courses of study provided in Section 81-885.13 of the Nebraska Real Estate License Act shall be courses of study approved by the Real Estate Commission and which are offered by (1) Nebraska accredited baccalaureate degree granting institutions and Nebraska or non-Nebraska institutions offering programs from which credits can be transferred to an accredited Nebraska baccalaureate degree granting institution, (2) Nebraska Community Colleges, (3) Special Institutes relating to real estate which Institutes are approved by the Real Estate Commission and (4) Proprietary Schools as provided in Section 81-885.13(6) of the Nebraska Real Estate License Act; Provided, the Real Estate Commission may give credit for similar courses taken at similar institutions in other states.

Notice of withdrawal of approval of any course or instructor and appeal of any such order shall follow the procedures for notice and appeal provided for in Section 81-885.18.

004.03 Courses of study provided for in Section 81-885.13 of the Nebraska Real Estate License Act which are offered in a distance education format must be approved by the Real Estate Commission and certified by the Association of Real Estate License Law Officials, with the exception that such certification will not be required of courses in a correspondence study format that held the certification by the Association of Real Estate License Law Officials and were in good standing as of January 1, 2012, and such courses shall remain exempt from Association of License Law Officials certification through January 1, 2017.
004.04 After January 1, 2017, courses of study provided for in Section 81-885.13 offered in correspondence study format shall be certified as to delivery method by the Real Estate Commission. Such certification shall include: learning objectives stated through performance terms, required levels of cognition higher than rudimentary knowledge, intellectual interactions with the content, and a combination of purposeful formative and summative assessments.

004.05 A student must complete the distance education course within one year of the date of enrollment. Distance education as used in this subsection shall mean courses in which instruction does not take place primarily by means of real time audio and visual interaction between teacher and student.

005 All examinations will be given under the supervision of the Director or his or her representative. The examination will be given no less than monthly unless otherwise ordered by the Commission. The Commission will inform applicants of approval to sit for the examination. In conducting the examination, the Commission may utilize professional testing services.

006 The Commission shall pass upon the granting of broker’s and salesperson’s licenses and upon applications for reciprocal and non-resident licenses.

007 An associate broker or salesperson, upon surrendering his or her license or when an order of suspension or revocation of his or her license becomes final, shall have their license forwarded by the employing broker at once to the Commission. If such license is that of a broker, such broker shall forward to the Commission with his or her own broker’s license, all salesperson’s or associate broker’s licenses in his or her possession or in his or her office and shall be responsible for all missing licenses of his or her salespersons or associate brokers.

008 Failure to make application for the renewal of a license prior to December 1st of the year the licensee’s renewal is due as defined by Section 81-885.14 will automatically cancel the license of a real estate broker or a real estate salesperson as of December 31st of that year and such real estate broker or real estate salesperson is prohibited from engaging in the real estate business in the State of Nebraska until such license has been renewed in accordance with Section 81-885.14 of the Nebraska Real Estate License Act.

009 Any licensee whose license has been canceled for failure to pay the renewal fee when due must comply with all requirements of a new applicant and comply with Section 81-885.53 of the Nebraska Real Estate License Act, if applicable, in order to secure reinstatement of his or her license, except as provided in Section 81-885.14(1) of the Nebraska Real Estate License Act.

010 Any inactive broker or salesperson may renew his or her license by making application, before December 1st by submitting the renewal fee, together with the completed renewal application on which he or she has noted his or her present “Inactive Status”. Any licensee whose license has been renewed on such “Inactive Status” shall not be permitted to engage in activities which require a real estate license under the Nebraska Real Estate License Act until such time as he or she fulfills the requirements for active status. Any license which has been inactive for a continuous period of more than three years shall be reinstated only after the licensee sits for and passes the applicable licensing examination in use at the time of activating the license and has made-up the required continuing education as set forth in Section 81-885.53 of the Nebraska Real Estate License Act.
All licensees who enter the armed service or are called to active duty after issuance of a real estate license are not required to pay the renewal fee or complete the continuing education requirement during the period of service. Upon discharge from said service the license shall be reinstated if the date of discharge is within three years of the date of beginning such service. In order to be eligible for reinstatement upon discharge from said service, the licensee may make application for said reinstatement within six months of the date of discharge as long as the date of discharge is within three years of the date of beginning such service. In any case of reinstatement, the licensee shall show proof, in the form of a photostatic copy of his or her discharge or papers of separation, that his or her discharge was other than dishonorable. If date of discharge is after three years from the date of beginning such service, the licensee shall be required to meet all the requirements for active status including the successful completion of the current real estate examination before the license will be reinstated.

When a licensee is transferring his/her license, the licensee shall not be deemed transferred until all required documents, fees and information have been received by the Commission. The licensee will be considered to be on inactive status from the date employment is terminated until the transfer is completed.
