Holiday Message From Commission Chair John Gale

On behalf of the Real Estate Commission and the Commission staff, we want to wish all of you a very Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukah, and a Happy New Year!

2018 has been another outstanding year for real estate agents and home builders in Nebraska, continuing a near decade record breaking economic boom in the country. Home sales have been strong as the economy prospered. Congratulations to Nebraska’s real estate agents and to the many home buyers!

As you know, I will be retiring on January 9, 2019, after serving eighteen years as Secretary of State and as chair of the Nebraska Real Estate Commission. The Commission consists of seven members, including one public representative, one salesperson representative, and four real estate brokers. Three brokers each represent a congressional district, and one is a broker at large. During my tenure, I have served with twenty-five different Commissioners. It has been an honor to serve with all of them. They have been conscientious, hard-working, well-prepared and dedicated to setting clear standards of professionalism, complaint resolution, and updating rules of practice to match the changing dynamics of the real estate industry.

As Chair of the Commission, I have been committed to long-term goals for the Nebraska Real Estate Commission, including: 1) sound and sensible personal and educational standards for applicants seeking to be licensed; 2) treating licensees subject to complaint with high standards of fairness and justice; 3) promoting and supporting legislation that advances high professional standards; and 4) maintaining high public trust and confidence in the professionalism of the industry.

Over my eighteen years as chair of the Commission, I have presided over 176 meetings as well as presiding over 60 disciplinary hearings. It has been a challenging task. My background as an attorney was very helpful to me in my duties as Chair. I have felt confident that the Commission met the standards for due process of law and thoughtful, deliberative disposition of complaint hearings.

Director Greg Lemon, Deputy for Education Alane Roubal, Deputy for Enforcement Duran Cell, and Deputy for Licensing Monica Rut provide outstanding and professional support for the Commission, and I extend my deepest thanks to them for their hard work and service. The quality of our staff and the level of experience and distinction of our Commissioners contribute to a positive working relationship, sound public service, and steady progress with the goal of best practices within the industry.

On behalf of the Commissioners and the Commission staff, I send best wishes to you and your families for a happy holiday season and a very successful 2019. We have appreciated the cooperation and input of the Nebraska REALTORS through various task forces helping to update policies and procedures of the Commission.

My congratulations to Bob Evnen, our newly elected Secretary of State. He will officially take office on January 10, 2019, after being qualified by the Legislature according to the State Constitution. Bob, a licensed attorney, has had a very successful career in Lincoln. He is very well-qualified for the job of Secretary of State and has great enthusiasm to begin his duties. Bob will find many new and positive ways to improve the services of the Secretary of State and the many duties he will be assuming, and I wish him the best of success!

Thank you for the opportunity to serve as Secretary of State and to help provide leadership to our state as a constitutional officer and as chair of the Nebraska Real Estate Commission.

Sincerely,

John A. Gale
Chair, NREC
Thank You Secretary of State Gale

November 15, 2018 was the last meeting for Secretary of State and Chairman of the Nebraska Real Estate Commission John Gale. John presided with a very even hand, and always sought to strike an appropriate balance between protecting the public interest and not creating unduly burdensome regulations for the Industry.

His early work with the Commission included using his legal training to assist with a re-write of the procedures for investigations and disciplinary hearings and he also served on the Finance Subcommittee of the Commission, making recommendations on budget matters and license fees. He served as meeting chair and hearing officer, the presiding judge at all disciplinary hearings, and was meticulous in his preparation for those hearings and the Commission meetings, as well as acting as master of ceremonies at the annual Commissioner retirement dinners.

The Secretary of State has a broad array of duties, from the state’s chief election officer, to corporate and business registrations, the commissioning of all notaries in the state and establishing rules for records retention for all state agencies and even the licensing of polygraph examiners. Even with all those other duties, there were many more contributions to the Real Estate Commission than can be listed here, but suffice it to say even if all those contributions were enumerated, his contribution would be greater than the sum of its parts, and I would like to thank him for his service to the industry and the state.

New Chair Bob Evnen

The Commission and its staff would also like to acknowledge and welcome new Secretary of State and Chairman of the Commission, Bob Evnen. Evnen comes from a long and distinguished career of private enterprise and public service, and we look forward to working with him.

Happy Holidays

We have had an eventful year at the Commission, with the new chair and members and the development of a new database which should be up next year. The number of applicants we are getting for real estate licenses are continuing at their historic high levels, and on that positive note, Happy Holidays to all reading this newsletter from everyone here at the Commission.
